

MARSHA STEPHEN COMMUNITY HEALTH LEADERSHIP AWARD 2024

Many leaders go unrecognized, but their efforts are felt deep in the heart of our communities. These leaders understand that health is a resource for people and communities. They see how to make things better. And they take action with others to make positive change toward health and wellbeing.

The Board of Directors of the Belleville and Quinte West Community Health Centre created the Marsha Stephen Community Health Leadership Award. The Award is to given to recognize people in our community who lead through innovation, collaboration, and positive change toward health and wellbeing.

This Award is open to anyone in our community who meets the criteria and has not received the Award in the past. NOTE - Current Staff and Board members of the Belleville and Quinte West Community Health Centre are not eligible.

Do you know a leader we could celebrate?

Do you know someone who is a community health leader?

Are they:

- making a positive contribution to health in our community?
- innovative in their approach or accomplishments?
- bringing people or programs together to work on a challenge?
- focused on promoting the health of the community?
- Supporting Belleville and/or Quinte West?
- Leaderful – has a vision, takes on challenges, makes a sustained and exceptional contribution?

Consider a Nomination...

Nominations will be received until April 19, 2024. Nominations should be forwarded via email to marshastephenaward@bqwchc.com or mailed or dropped off at BQWCHC in Belleville or Quinte West.

The Marsha Stephen Community Health Leadership Award is offered annually and awarded at the discretion of the Belleville and Quinte West Community Health Centre Board of Directors. The decision of the BQWCHC Board of Directors is final.
